1985 Cap and Gown
Volume 87
The University of the South
Sewanee, Tennessee

For a long time we were shut away here unheeded and unheeding. We liked ourselves, we enjoyed associating with ourselves; we were sorry for people who did not understand and appreciate Sewanee.

Sarah Barnwell Elliott,

BA,

You Make Us Proud!
With love from your family

Dear Shannon,

From all of us: Congratulations on your graduation!

Surely your diploma will represent for you four years of hard work-including everything from homework and finals to Bogota' and summer jobs. Certainly it will further represent for you knowledge and memories and friendships-all extremely precious. Please let it also represent the pleasure that so many of us have taken in your numerous accomplishments. And let it represent too the joy in your father's heart at having a daughter who also knows and loves Sewanee. With diploma in hand you now leave the Mountain; but you will find, like so many of us before you, that this Mountain and its meaning will never leave you.

Waya con Dios!

Love,
Dad

Ryan Finkbohner—
Social Chairman

Best Wishes From
Pop, Mom, Skip,
Tricia, Beth, and Annie

Congratulations
Carol
with our most heart felt wishes for this accomplishment and
for a wonderful life ahead. Because of so many memories—
our family will always consider
"The Mountain" a
Special Place
Love,
Mom & Dad

We have two ends
With a common link
With one we sit
With one we think
Success depends on
What we use
Heads we win
Tails we lose.

Congratulations, Kristin!
You've done a great job!
Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear
Serena,
Congratulations!

For Lee --

Sewanee Stones

Sewanee stones, take my son;
I give him you; do your work.

Sewanee stones, those taken from
The mountain where they yet remain
Fixed in walls for learning built;
As nature's labor joined with man's,
And those still firmly underfoot,
Firm footing give -- do your work.

Sewanee stones, the lives entrusted
In your care, just when their clay
Is still most malleable, their will
Not yet fully formed, are all
We give the future of our now;
Share your strength -- do your work.

Sewanee stones, of multicolor beauty,
Unyielding hardness, surface rough,
Support him, thwart him, please his eye
With natural harmony to draw from
When the world takes out its whips
And hunts him down -- do your work.

Sewanee stones, lift his eye
Toward rising spires against the sky
Where bells proclaim in glorious song
Diety manifest here on earth;
Let his soul rise with the stones
Toward heaven-home -- do your work.

Sewanee stones, take my son;
I give him you; do your work.

Mary Jo Pride

"What? The pub is on fire?"
Congratulations, Chief Rather
Mom and Dad

The play is done; the curtain drops, slow falling to the prompter's bell: a moment yet the actor stops, and looks around, to say farewell. One word, ere yet the college day ends, let's close it with a parting rhyme, and pledge a hand to all young friends, as fits the merry graduation time. On life's wide scene you, too, have parts, that Fate ere long will bid you play; Goodbye! with honest gentle hearts a kindly greeting go alway!

With love and congratulations to Joseph Royal—and apology to William Makepeace Thackray!

For her service, dedication, and contributions to the University of the South, the editor wishes to dedicate the 1985 Cap and Gown to Mrs. W.D. Mask.

Mr. and Mrs.
William Dunavant
Mask

for "Miss Betty" Mask

Behold there appeared a little red wagon ...
II Kings 2

A parting's pause
And next the last fray;
Each thread beyond itself,
Then wicker's bottom : Balloons aloft!

Dogs and chirrun beneath
The ascent—this Commencement,
Next step after many,
Quick years cargoed : Balloons aloft!

Her wave sped them on —
Each Bubber, Brian, and Mark;
They knew the hearth
And soothing cup : Tuckaway.

And Johnson too. She
Met as they would be met
And shared a glad Society : But not just they.

All those who house this Arcady, all who tell
Of old Sewanee, we
Cheer the ascent : Balloons aloft!

Sway and color
Rise, recede, are gone;
We count stars
By noon-bright sun : Balloons aloft!

It is so beautiful that people who have once been there always, one way or another, come back. For such as can detect apple green in an evening sky, it is Arcadia.

William Alexander Percy,
Lanterns on the Levee

As you have glanced through these pages you have seen the result of many hours of work. I would like to extend a "thank you" to everyone who helped in the production of this book, especially to Lyn Hutchinson our steadfast photographer, to Scott Caldwell our enthusiastic and patient Herff Jones representative, and to Moore Studios our class portraits photographer. I'm especially grateful to my friends and family for their support and understanding when things got rough.

Finally, I hope that I have succeeded in filling these pages with fond and meaningful memories of this year at Sewanee.
